

MATTHEW MCCOY
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF BANDS
SEABROOK INTERMEDIATE SCHOOL

Matthew McCoy is currently in his 12th year as Assistant Band Director at Seabrook Intermediate School.

Mr. McCoy is a graduate of Syracuse University in May 2001 with a Bachelor's in Music Education and Honors in Saxophone Performance. Prior to that, he attended Wilson Senior High School in West Lawn, Pennsylvania and graduated from there in 1997. Immediately after graduating from Syracuse University, Mr. McCoy served as the Assistant Director of Orchestras at J. Frank Dobie High School and then the Assistant Director of Bands at South Houston High School in Pasadena ISD.

As a saxophone player, Mr. McCoy has studied with Mr. David Bilger, Dr. Ronald Caravan, Dr. Paul Cohen, and studied jazz saxophone with Mr. Tom Strohman of Third Stream. He has also played for a number of top notch performers including Alex Dean and Denis DiBlasio. As an adjudicator, Mr. McCoy has judged numerous solo and ensemble contests in Southeast Texas and All-District Band auditions in New York State.

Mr. McCoy lives in the Clear Lake City area with his wife Alice, who is an Orchestra Director and his two children, Quynn, 8, and Ian, 5.
