

BRIAN J. MORENO
DIRECTOR OF BANDS

Mr. Moreno has been Director of Bands at Clear Falls High School since 2016. A native of Galveston, Mr. Moreno graduated from Ball High School in 1998 and attended Houston Baptist University and completed a Bachelor's degree in Music Education in 2004.

Mr. Moreno began his teaching career at Cypress Ridge High School in 2004 and remained there until 2009. He then joined the staff at Texas City High School as the Head Band Director in 2009 to 2015. In 2015, Mr. Moreno was named the Director of Bands at Manvel High School and came to Clear Falls in 2016.

Bands under Mr. Moreno's direction have frequently earned UIL Superior Ratings in the realms of Marching, Concert, and Sight-reading. Other awards have included Best in Class in the prestigious Bands of America Marching Contests, UIL Area Marching Contest Finalists, Area Honor Band Contest, Best in Show at Houston Area Marching Festivals, and Grand Champions at Choice Music Events.

Mr. Moreno has also enjoyed an enriching career as a freelance trumpet player around the Houston Area. He has played in many venues including playing lead trumpet for jazz ensembles, salsa/meringue groups, the Houston Caribbean festival, and many musicals with professional groups. He still plays his instrument and enjoys being able to demonstrate a variety of musical skills to his students.

Mr. Moreno has a beautiful wife, Meagen, and three wonderful daughters Aspen, Eliana and Ondraya. When not at the band hall, he spends much quality time with them and their dog Sandie. Mr. Moreno is also an active member at his church, the First Baptist Church of Galveston under friend and Pastor John Turner.
